NJK, elsewhere you said Jesus is replacing the SDA Church with NJK Project as His Remnant Church. Is this correct?

Indeed....both the fact that I have said so, and also that I believe this to be the present Biblical reality. That is what I understand to be the fulfillment of the distinct Church Triumphant \(Link: <http://njkproject.blogspot.com/2009/10/church-triumphant.html>\) entity/organization. God's True Church/People is wherever His Truth are wholly and fully upheld! The SDA Church, by persisting in its unbiblical practices is self-limiting and self-excluding itself.

-As the Jer 18 principle shows, God can 'change His mind' if circumstances change and thus, as with Ancient Israel postpone and transfer promises made to a people to another group that He raises up to replace them.

-EGW herself said that this was not so (e.g. LDE 59-62)

-God cannot “forgive” when and where there is, especially no contrition for sin and wayward ways. The only option then is judgement.

-The Remnant Church of God is not limited to ‘a Formal Organization and its various physical Institutions’. God Church is wherever His truth is upheld, preached and practised. As seen in Ezek 11:23 God’s presence completed its removal from that typological rebellious Judah just prior to the execution of its “Shaking” judgement. This development was tangibly seen in Christ taking His disciples to that same Mount of Olives to tell them, for the first time of the sure coming utter destruction of Jerusalem (Matt 23:37-24:3ff).

It very may in the SDA Church however God is not required to remain associated with it, especially if it becomes pervasively entrenched to the point where His Will, Principles and Law(s) cannot be corporately, nor, by reason of having no corporate support, also individually, upheld as they fully should be.

I see this statement of EGW meaning that ‘there will always be a manifestation of evil in the Church to deal with’, as it was the case in Israel, however a Church is actually suppose to deal and work to eradicate those risen evils, and not, as done today permit and facilitate them.

As you can read (see post above), NJK believes God is replacing the SDA Church with the NJK Project as His end-time Remnant Church to finish proclaiming the Gospel. Is NJK right? Or, should we defend the SDA Church against his claims?

This goes contrary to the writings of EGW, who clearly states in her writings that there will NOT be any new organization that will replace the SDA church.

When I have more time, I will quote and reference where she states this fact.

From what I have read in the SOP on this topic (see e.g., LDE (Ch. 4) pp. 43-51-62, I don't see so.

I have addressed a commonly quoted SOP statement on this (1SM 179 (1890)

Let's Biblically/Exegetically parse/analyse the following SOP quote (2SM 380.2) cited by Green Cochoa in Post #135204 (first the full quote):

This statement recalls EGW warning given to SDA that Satan will work in a special way to deceive especially SDA's. =An ecclesiastical (i.e., SDA) application of Rev 13:13-17. This was discussed in this post \(#134529\) (Link: <http://www.maritime-sda-online.com/forums/ubbthreads.php?ubb=showflat&Number=134529#Post134529>). The holy Scriptures inform us that, in the last days, Satan will work with power, and signs, and lying wonders, and with all deceivableness of unrighteousness. To those who do not love the truth he even appears as an angel of light. These words are fulfilled in the deceptions and false teachings of the present time. Spiritualists make the path to hell most attractive. Spirits of darkness are clothed by these deceptive teachers in pure robes of Heaven, and they have power to deceive those not fortified with Bible truth. {ST, April 12, 1883 par. 1}

Vain philosophy is employed in representing the path to hell as a path of safety. With the imagination highly wrought, and voices musically tuned, they picture the broad road as one of happiness and glory. Ambition holds before deluded souls, as Satan presented to Eve, a freedom and bliss for them to enjoy which they never conceived was possible. Men are praised who have traveled the broad path to hell, and after they die are exalted to the highest positions in the eternal world. Satan, clothed in robes of brightness, appearing like an exalted angel, tempted the world's Redeemer without success. But as he comes to man robed as an angel of light he has better success. He covers his hideous purposes, and succeeds too well in deluding the unwary who are not firmly anchored upon eternal truth. {ST, April 12, 1883 par. 2}

Riches, power, genius, eloquence, pride, perverted reason, and passion, are enlisted as Satan's agents in doing his work in making the broad road attractive, strewing it with tempting flowers. ...

Given that SDA's understand (a) the manner of Christ Return and (b) the State of the Dead, then they most likely will not be deceived by (a) Satan appearing as Christ (e.g, walking about in Jerusalem and performing miracles) without effectuating this Glorious Second coming nor (b) appearing as deceased loved ones (ST, April 12, 1883 par. 7&8) who are, moreover, teaching that the Sabbath has been changed to Sunday, and that even merely through the “mediation” of “Spiritualists”, they will not be deceived by these snares. However it is this ‘making of the “path to hell most attractive” and “a path of safety” through the ‘vain philosophies, deceptions and false teachings of the present time that have “have power to deceive those not fortified with Bible truth”’ that is indeed most successful among even SDA Christians. Preying on desires of happiness, glory, ambition, freedom and bliss and through “riches, power, genius, eloquence, pride, perverted reason, and passion” Satan indeed is ‘successful in covering his hideous purposes, and does succeed too well in deluding the unwary who are not firmly anchored upon eternal truth.’

It is most significant to me that EGW included in 1SP (=EW 133ff), just after such a discussion in a chapter on Spiritualism, where ‘it seemed that the whole world was on board’ (EW 263.1ff), and just before a chapter on “The Shaking (EW 269ff), a warning chapter on the sin of ‘Covetousness’ (EW 266-269). Indeed Satan’s plan in this is to: ‘lay snares especially for those who were looking for Christ’s second appearing and keeping all the commandments of God.’ It is actually his choice plan vs. ‘increasing his power and lying wonders’ as this would better serve to hold SDA Churches in their sleep and not rouse them to work against him by recognizing clear signs of his workings. And so he has given the instruction to: ‘Go, make the possessors of lands and money drunk with cares. For if his agents can make them place their affections upon these things, they shall have them yet.’ (EW 266.1)

Indeed all of these counsels have been fulfilled upon the SDA Church in the individual and corporate reverence that they pay to Capitalism. (Cf. this post \(Link: http://njkproject.blogspot.com/2009/11/sealing-of-gods-people-part-2-ezekiel-9.html\)). As patently seen throughout this topically dedicated thread \(Link: http://www.maritime-sda-online.com/forums/ubbthreads.php?ubb=showflat&Number=73537\), speaking against Capitalism for the more Biblical socio-economic will and laws of God is considered as an “anathema”. And so the SDA Church is marching lockstep with the world in obey the dictates of ‘making money’ vs. seeking to do God’s Sabbatical will.

This attitude and development, also realized upon SDA’s fullfills the most crucial ensnaring precursor for the full fulfillment of Rev 13:13-17. But of course, SDA’s are only to look for a “Letter of the Law” fulfillment of the Mark of the Beast (= Sunday Sacredness Law)! The Mark of the Beast is, fully, actually anything that opposes God’s full Sabbath as Divinely expounded upon in Isa 58, and thus includes this violation of the Bible’s Sabbatical socio-economic laws and principles.

Of course Satan's end goal is thwart the mandated Gospel work that the Church has to do, which is tri-fold: show sinners the way to Salvation, restore God's Truth, and break every, contra-Sabbatical, enslaving yoke, both Spiritual and Temporal (Isa 58:6, 7). These aspects are respectively covered by the final warning messages of God's Three Angels. (Rev 14:6-12)

As I see it, this power, directly derived from that snare of "Covetousness" is the espousing of various pervasive Capitalistic methods to (attempt to) conduct God's Work and fulfill Christ's mandate. That is e.g., seen in our Hospitals being merely big businesses and performing abortions also ultimately for economic reasons; our College and Universities not training (professional) missionaries but merely workers for Capitalists; no systemic support for missionary work; an individualistic competitive approach to Biblical Research result in great deficiencies in the end product; etc. (See more here \(Link: http://njkproject.blogspot.com/2010/12/seventh-day-adventists-believe.html\))

Here is where most people get tripped up. They assume that the "church" here means the present physical buildings where the professed people of God meet. The first century Jews made this same mistake with their temple and Jerusalem. (Cf. Matt 23:37-24:3). The truth is, as repeatedly seen in the Bible, God is not limited to physical buildings. To sift sinners out of the Church it will tangibly require to revoke their membership and bar them from attending a Church. That is not going to happen, especially if the vast majority of the Church continues to be deceived by the many tentacles of this Covetousness Snare.

The only other option, when indeed simply preaching fails is to move ahead with God in faith that He will not let His Truth die away as Satan wants and is succeeding in doing by having deceived the Church to espouse Capitalism.

Again, God Church is wherever His Truth is practised and not limited by buildings that men have built in His name. (Cf. DA 627.1-2).

Sins of omission, i.e., 'knowing to do something and not doing it', such as: not doing all that is actually easily feasible to end the senseless deaths in the world, and that, for the sake of being loyal and obedient to Capitalism, is not only a sin, but it is a CAPITAL SIN, i.e., surely an ETERNAL LIFE-BARRING SIN (Matt 25:45, 46) (indeed as all persisted sins are). There will surely be "gnashing of teeth" then.

That statement is clear in itself and indeed only "putting on" the 'right acts of Christ' (see this post \(#134936\) \(Link: http://www.maritime-sda-online.com/forums/ubbthreads.php?ubb=showflat&Number=134936#Post134936\)) as seen in His Full Gospel work will save us.

So the mere/surface/shallow, but quite popular claim that ‘God cannot work outside of the present buildings of the SDA Church’ is completely unbiblical. God is where His will is actually done and this transition will be clearly seen when this Shaking \(Link: http://njproject.blogspot.com/2010/11/shaking-in-it-biblical-context.html\) is completely. DA 627-636)).

My recommendation, as it worked for me, seek, as God/Christ fully expects, to help everyone in need, ignoring that spurious Capitalist beckonings and “callings” to keep worshipping it, and you’ll discover God Full Truth and all that it entails.

The Laodicean Church is the last church mentioned in the Revelation. It is the translation church, that is, the church that will finish proclaiming the 3AMs and will be translated alive when Jesus arrives. The SDA Church is the Laodicean Church. A shaking will occur and those who remain will possess the gold, eyesalve, and white raiment. Nowhere in prophecy does it say the SDA church will be replaced by another.

The above quote states there will not be any new organization for SDAs or anybody to join. As presently imperfect as it may be, the SDA church is the last organization that will take us to the 2nd Coming. We are not talking about buildings here, but an organization, and the SDA denomination is that organization, that last organization.

The Church Triumphant is actually God's Last Church. Laodicea is the last of God's Church Militants. The Church Triumphant will bring together all of the triumphing elements from each of those 7 (eschatologically, "types of") Churches.

The ongoing Shaking of the Laodicean Church is in its final stages. Unless people learn what the dividing truths are they just be "Shaking" out and the more who are so deceived the less perceptible this will be as they'll just remain in their pew while God's glory would have already, now fully moved elsewhere.

If you can find the name SDA in the Greater Light of Bible Prophecy, then you'll have proven your point. The current organization of the Remnant Church as the SDA Church is not irrevocable before God.

Obviously you glossed over the nuance of the “qualifying” word “now”; and apparently also the “need” one in 1SM 179. “Not now” and “no need” does not mean “never”. If that’s is what EGW meant from what she had been shown, she would have clearly said so. But as seen in LDE 59-62 she saw/knew much better than that. Those “now” were said in the synonymous sense that ‘there then was not a need to do this.

In fact I see EGW’s quasi pleading not now, to be in the light of the fact that she knew this could be done, if/when valid. Indeed as she would have instead said: “I was shown that there is never, nor never will be...” She probably felt in 1905 that such a drastic measure was not really needed then. But now it surely is as the Gospel hampering Capital Sin has found its way in every corner of the Church. From what I see and believe was her pivotal 1908 Whirlwind Judgement vision \(Link: http://njkproject.blogspot.com/2011/01/gods-whirlwind-judgement-on-sda-church.html\) where she says that there was not an SDA member left after it was over, I not only see this radical replacement occurring but, like with the Spiritual element of the name Israel, those who truly will be Seventh-day Adventist then, will be the one’s are actually truly doing what this name implies and that is ‘giving a most vivid and incontrovertible living testimony to all nations of God’s Sabbatical Rest and His Glorious Kingdom’. And then the end will come. (Matt 24:14). Mere professions while opposing God’s Kingdom in actions, as systematically done by the SDA Church, will, as the Bible and SOP reveals, never, ever be honoured by God. God has all the time in the universe as He is in sovereign control of this world. E.g, He can even cause the missiles of an all-out nuclear holocaust war to malfunction and disintegrate on flight in space. No one and nothing will prevent God from fully accomplishing His planned will on this Earth as He wants it to be done before His return. We are the ones who have to fully come in line with that Truth.

When one cannot either proclaim God’s actual Truth and strengthened His Temple’s pillar in an organization, then there exists the need to establish another one so that this can be done. As shown here \(Link: http://njkproject.blogspot.com/2010/01/furhtering-fundamentals.html\) what is actually truth in the SDA Church will be carried forward in the NJK Project and what actually is not, however popular will be left behind so that God's Light and Glory can fully Shine Forth through this new organization. (= Isa 60).

God's back is never against any wall and He foreplanned this Laodicean supplanting Church Triumphant from the very beginning. Since He knew he would test and deal with His New Israel in the same way as He did with the Old Israel, then He surely knew what to plan for and most likely expect to see unravel. It should not have been the case, but it just has come to be so.

It is very clear to me that the SDA Church shall stand to the end of time as God's appointed church.

Re: Is God replacing the SDA Church with the NJK Project as His end-time Remnant Church? - 07/17/11 09:42 PM Posted by: Mountain Man

Equally as clear are the following passages:

Quote:

I testify to my brethren and sisters that the church of Christ, enfeebled and defective as it may be, is the only object on earth on which He bestows His supreme regard. While He extends to all the world His invitation to come to Him and be saved, He commissions His angels to render divine help to every soul that cometh to Him in repentance and contrition, and He comes personally by His Holy Spirit into the midst of His church. "If Thou, Lord, shouldest mark iniquities, O Lord, who shall stand? But there is forgiveness with Thee, that Thou mayest be feared. I wait for the Lord, my soul doth wait, and in His word do I hope. My soul waiteth for the Lord more than they that watch for the morning. . . . Let Israel hope in the Lord: for with the Lord there is mercy, and with Him is plenteous redemption. And He shall redeem Israel from all his iniquities." {TM 15.1}

Although there are evils existing in the church, and will be until the end of the world, the church in these last days is to be the light of the world that is polluted and demoralized by sin. The church, enfeebled and defective, needing to be reprov'd, warn'd, and counseled, is the only object upon earth upon which Christ bestows His supreme regard. The world is a workshop in which, through the cooperation of human and divine agencies, Jesus is making experiments by His grace and divine mercy upon human hearts. Angels are amazed as they behold the transformation of character brought about in those who yield themselves to God, and they express their joy in songs of rapturous praise to God and to the Lamb. They see those who are by nature the children of wrath, converted and becoming laborers together with Christ in drawing souls to God. They see those who were in darkness becoming lights to shine amid the moral night of this wicked and perverse generation. They see them becoming prepared by a Christlike experience to suffer with their Lord, and afterward to be partakers with Him in His glory in heaven above. {TM 49.1}

Nevertheless, NJK believes these types of quotes must be interpreted to mean Jesus will, if necessary, replace the SDA Church with another organization to finish proclaiming the Gospel. He is convinced his NJK Project is replacing the SDA Church.

When a church proves unfaithful to the word of the Lord, whatever their position may be, however high and sacred their calling, the Lord can no longer work with them. Others are then chosen to bear important responsibilities. And I rather word this issue as: "if" and not : 'when' (= your "after") because (a) I do not believe that it will fail and indeed see it as the ultimate Gospel and Living testimony (= Mal 4:6), a level that the SDA Church has failed to reach and really do not care to reach, preferring their worldly conforming ways and (b) I know better than to think that God would have His hands tied, or His back to the wall.

It is very clear to me that the SDA Church shall stand to the end of time as God's appointed church.

I appreciate the substantive Biblical exchange Daryl.

To me, you are again here, effectively, actually limiting God to buildings and even a current organization. To be accurate here, EGW is speaking of a unity that God has appointed to stand to the end of time, and as I see it, to wherever His Church actually is capable of being His Church. God cannot reign over a rebellious people. And, more generally speaking, when 'what He has appointed' and His Spirit and Counsels are rebelliously rejected by a Church and also its individual members, God can, and will, and that easily, revoke and replace them (LDE 59.1-2) and move His Truth to a new organization. He has done it before and will do it again. Just ask ancient Israel and indeed see how many OT prophecies had to be transferred over to God's New Israel. Even though God had plans to establish a New Covenant (Jer 31:27-34) God did not intend to have to work through a "New Organization" but this became a "necessity" particularly when Jewish Christians were thrown out of the synagogues. They then had to start from scratch with first, house churches, However look at the Global NT Church today of over 2.3 billion adherents versus the Jewish Religion.

And as stated in Jer 31:27-30, God takes it upon Himself to make sure that this physical supplant succeeds by bring on the appropriate, even physical judgement punishment. For various legal reasons, I will not give specific details here, but the SDA Church is just a due/pending lawsuit-they-cannot-afford away from being, at worst physically dispossessed. (Cf. Dan 11:16 \(Link: http://njkproject.blogspot.com/2009/11/daniel-11-text.html\)) And if that option is not exercised, by just following in step with the practises of Capitalism, as seen in the last Economic Crisis, they are just a likely to be quite detrimentally affected by an economic downturn.

Also, as what is clearly a natural consequence of the pervasive dysfunction in the Church, there are many Doctrinal/Theological deficiencies and outright fallacies, thought to be the Truth that is preventing people to understand what is Spiritually at play here. Succinctly said, though I do not see EGW herself having, or persisting in this belief, is this belief that God only has effectively one last chance or one option left to wrap things up. However, the God Almighty (Link: <http://njkproject.blogspot.com/2009/10/book-preview-god-all-mighty.html>), the Lord of Hosts, will never be defeated by anyone nor anything, and He will continue to work and act as the circumstances on earth, especially in His Church necessitate it.

Re: Is God replacing the SDA Church with the NJK Project as His end-time Remnant Church? - 07/18/11 01:11 AM Posted by: NJK Project

Indeed, as with proper exegesis, all pertinent passages need to be taken into consideration. And EGW's other 'need/necessity' comments cannot be ignore. This all stems from the Jer 18:1-10 principle which indeed is fully in effect here, and as God has said, even with what He Himself has said/promised. When one understands the Biblical, Theological Truth that the future is not set in stone, nor does not even exist, then this is not at all an incomprehensible or "impossible" 'change of mind' development. Indeed it is then seen and understood, as repeatedly showed in the Bible that God's professed people can go to an extreme that God Himself did not expect that they would. (Isa 5:1-7; Jer 18:13-17). God then will and does take the necessary actions.

And on a wider and more Spiritual viewpoint here, my challenge to you Mountain Man, and anyone else who subscribed to this Spiritually shallow and "devoid" view, is to seek to accomplish Jesus's Gospel commission through this Church, as Jesus expects and you'll see for yourself that it is a major obstacle to this objective. And worst of all, while the Church continues indifferently along this path, close to 100 million people per year are dying senseless and preventable deaths, most to Christless grave. You all just want to vehemently harp on the inherently necessary organizational, for Gospel Order, aspect of this project, by just don't express the same concern to rescue those who are dying. Indeed instead of e.g., fighting to end abortion, i.e., by working to set up quite alluring adoption options, you prefer to just get your Church squeaky clean and let these unwanted infants go get butchered somewhere else. Ohhhh the self-deception and hypocrisy!!

Seek to actually come to the rescue of those and need and you'll see that this commotion about "an organization" is just a cheap distraction. Indeed seek to prove that what my Project is seeking to do, pointedly humanitarianly, is not Biblical (e.g, Isa 58 & Matt 25:31-46) and you will succeed in proving it to be the work course to take. And if you can't, or worst don't actually think so, then, Soul/Character-searchingly, honestly ask yourself why you are not seeking to have this accomplished, i.e., to that actual and thorough extent, in "your Church"!??

In the end, the organizational position and structural presence will fall where they may and only those who are then actually fulfilling Christ's Gospel will then be standing as God's True Church (Triumphant), or even physically standing at all.

And... Jer 18:18 anyone??...it is not recommended (vss. 19-23). If you think you are 'fighting error and heresy' then, if you actually can, fight it with Truth.

That's odd... I had recommended it to you a few posts back in Post #135210 (Link: <http://www.maritime-sda-online.com/forums/ubbthreads.php?ubb=showflat&Number=135210#Post135210>). Are you even reading, at least my answering posts to you or does that won't make a difference???

And like I said just in my last post, proper exegesis takes into account both sides of an issue and seeks to reconcile them. I have for my view, you all have chosen not to. Until you do so, you will not have an exegetical. All false/erroneous teaching are formed in this "selective", however well-meaning, even "honest", manner.

Again, my reconciled view: There was no need for a new organization in EGW's day however now there quite easily, demonstrably is, that is if one is actually interested in fully accomplishing Jesus Christ's Gospel Commission as He expects it. Again, if you want to prove me wrong, by showing that there is not this "need", then do so by addressing that incontrovertible "Full Gospel mandate" issue. There indeed is no getting around this. (Matt 21:42-44). Christ and His Full Gospel are inseparable... reject One and you reject the Other.

Interestingly enough, it is quite manifest that it was because Ancient Israel had this same "irrevocable" view that God made His warning, "Conditional Promise/Prophecy" pronouncement in Jer 18:1-17ff. Any Promises/Prophecies made through EGW are not beyond God's Amendments. Still He will find a way/people to accomplish what He had intended with that former people, even if solely at a Spiritual Level, as with NT Israel. (cf. Isa 55:6-11).

This question is answered on the introduction/ "synopsis" \(home\) page (Link: http://www.njkproject.info/njk/hc_organization/hcsynopsis.html) of the Project's website and in more detail in a dedicated page (Link: http://www.njkproject.info/njk/hc_organization/hclocations.html). That is the targeted location of the project given the tangible need to literally house and adequately care for up to 65,000,000 new people (i.e., would be aborted infants) per year. The proximity needs for facilitated cooperation, as seen in urban congregating in our world, of a physical city to then provided the adequate and also high quality necessities of life for everyone also require those (floating) city location given that no existing country will probably want to be somewhat liable of such a larger population increase within their territorial jurisdiction.

However depending on how exactly the project is predominately funded for its establishment (i.e., collective funding, personal funding or ministries funding), the initial location may be different. That is:

Collective Funding : Actively joining people first living in the future NJK Missions Campuses \(Link: http://www.njkproject.info/njk/hc_ministry/njkmissions.html\) which will be on territorial jurisdictions until a minimally or adequately sized \(Link: http://www.njkproject.info/njk/hc_living/hcdemographics/hcpopulation.html\) HC is completed. These people will, in a possible needed capacity, as physically capable, be variously contributing to this construction \(Link: http://www.njkproject.info/njk/hc_building/constructplan.html\). With today's construction tooling/equipment technology (most of the needed ones being, patent wise, in the public domain) and with this being ocean floating cities, not much physical effort will actually be needed. In fact this construction can mostly be done remotely in coastal manufacturing plants/"shipyards" and/or in a specially built/fitted, ocean Factory Ship \(Link: http://www.njkproject.info/njk/hc_building/constructplan/projecthq/factoryship.html\).

Ministry (Link: <http://njkproject.blogspot.com/2008/07/college-of-biblical-research-recruiting.html>) and/or Personal Funding : The paying of asked/market/agreed prices to have the work done by other externally hired people, even to take care of, as in a orphanage-type setting on the NJK Missions Campuses, the generation of would-have-been aborted infants until they are old enough to take care of themselves 18-20+ and start their own family life.

What are those other questions, if they have not been fully addressed here?...

What's your point with all of this question. Just be confident enough in its Biblical validity and openly/explicitly state it.... It is going to take much more than your base views to convince of what I variously know about this project. Indeed it is going to take a matching and overruling "Biblical, Theological View \(Link: http://njkproject.blogspot.com/\)". By now I have much experience dealing with such knee-jerk and Biblically shallow objections.

So here are the, pertinently "serious", when due... either way, answers to your questions, -however LOL mischievous they manifestly are (given, as I see it, the unbiblical spirit and nature of your PM comments to me on this issue):

1. As I had said before to you in Post #134948 \(Link: http://www.maritime-sda-online.com/forums/ubbthreads.php?ubb=showflat&Number=134948#Post134948\), there currently is a mere professed "interest" of less than five, at best. Of course people can do the quite "moronic" thing of waiting for others to join before they do. They are certainly free to do so. They'll just be held accountable for the many lives they literally could have help saved by an early, if ever, project advancing joining.

As with the Spirit-led apostolic Church, it takes much more than the 10% of tithes paying to be an accepted member of this Project as they will truly want to do all that is (quite) feasible to come to the rescue of people in vital need. (Acts 2:42-45ff; 4:32-35; 2 Cor 8:7-15; all in harmony with the Letter and Spirit of God's Sabbatical Laws for such circumstances.)

(On a related note, in the same Spirit and manner of the Jews of old, there are two ways to send an SDA into a "heresy/apostasy" frenzy, just touch the issue of tithing (as knee-jerkly done with Ernie Knolls' supposed-to-be SDA reformatory dreams) and/or speak against their "costly" institutions/buildings. The blind "love of money" in this Church, from top to bottom, above even Spiritual issues, is just utterly repugnant and nauseating (Rev 3:17).)

Currently, if they are alive, probably. However with this Project involving seeking 'to save the verify life of the least of these of Christ's brethren' which is what Jesus is ultimately seeking as the manifestation of True conversion, then His coat of righteousness will surely be covering them (e.g., Isa 54:17). Those self-deceived and self-righteous who are sinning by being indifferent to the even quite vital needs of others (1 John 3:15-17) surely do not have covering of Christ (Matt 25:31-46 \(Link: http://njkproject.blogspot.com/2009/11/sealing-of-gods-people-part-2-ezekiel-9.html\); Matt 22:1-14|COL 310.2-3; cf. 1SM 109-111), especially when they come to be made aware of this incontrovertible sin (of omission) in their life. Indeed "God will continue to work on this principle with every branch of His work. {LDE 59.1}".

Currently Constitutional Measures are being drafted to, for the sake of righteous people, avoid and "check" as much as possible, any rapid, descent of a preferred ungodly living, however that cannot be guaranteed by anyone, and as I Theologically understand it, not even by God. So if this comes to be the unfortunate case, then God will justly deal with such a generation of His Chosen People, indeed as He has consistently and repeatedly done before... and time will be prolonged until a generation actually finally fully does His GC Consummation Testify and Warning work on Earth.

Do quite significantly/tellingly, (at least to me), notice the two post SDA Church levels of re-organized Remnant Church in EGW's 1903 comment in LDE 59.2. By logical implication she would have meant here that another group was going to be organized from the then, and still, existing SDA Church Organization (i.e., 1903ff), and which would/could be followed by yet another group. Thus, to me, at least:

1. Current SDA Church
2. (By necessity) A Remnant of a Remnant
3. (And again by necessity) Another Remnant of a Remnant until the Church Triumphant is finally fully formed and accomplishes all of God's pre-end will. According to my Biblically informed view, the No. 2 development has not come by strict necessity. The present SDA Church manifestly has absolutely no plans to zealous, even in any way, reform itself as it actually easily can do. Despite its "God-appointed", supposed-to-be, Spiritual leadership structure, everyone is just "individually"/sectarianly doing "what is right in their eyes" (Deu 12:8; Jud 17:6; 21:25) irrespective of what the Bible/SOP actually & truly says. Currently, concretely, no. However the various plans for this implementation in some sectors are completed and in advancing development in others. Once enough people join and/or the various pursued funding sources (referred to in this post \(Link: http://njkproject.blogspot.com/2010/12/my-first-vision.html\)) are, when completed/secured, each being capable of entirely funding the entire full Project (i.e., up to 144,000 global floating Holy Cities - interestingly enough an ocean space (with some adequate spacing) natural (i.e., terrestrial) limitation), many, many times over.

The Nature of the Project itself, as it will accomplish Christ's commission, which the Church is not working to actually do, is what replace the SDA Church as the True Remnant Movement of God. That was a plan that was always incorporated in Bible Prophecy, even in some parts of the OT, particularly in the latter parts of Ezekiel, once it was quite manifest that Israel, by rejecting the prophetic ministry of Ezekiel and engaging on a God-absent path that would lead to sure failure and rejection in the end, would not succeed in accomplishing God's Israel Triumphant will by the First Century A.D. So, by having endeavored to accomplish this Full Gospel Commission and thus coming to discover this Greater, Triumphant Israel Plan of God, indeed beyond merely and Ecclesiastical level, which should have served to prepare for that Greater Plan, then I, speaking for myself, do consider to be a part of the Remnant of the Remnant movement that, like the related \(Eschatological\) Two Witnesses prophecy \(Link: <http://njkproject.blogspot.com/2009/10/testimony-to-church-part-1a.html>\), now stands established as God's Movement.

Ironically enough, and I never said that the other 4 people had actually "embraced this cause", they just merely, variously expressed interest, for what I considered to be reasons that have not taken into consideration all aspects of the project, among other key things (cf. 1SM 109-111) indeed, it is I myself who is not considering them as "members", but just "interests".

Originally Posted By: Rosangela

For the reasons stated above: not anymore. Indeed I retroactively see that this transition began to occur in 1996 when the Church failed to advance on an increasing path of 'what should/might have been.' As I recount in my bio post \(Link: <http://njkproject.blogspot.com/2010/12/my-first-vision.html>\) by June 1999, I was sure that this perceived switch would surely occur.

A Church cannot (continue to) be the "Remnant" unless they are actually "keeping the Commandments of God and the (Gospel) Faith of Jesus as well as also having the Testimony of Jesus, particularly for these times, as indeed also included in the SOP. The Church has failed to follow the EGW given counsels that would have led to them experientially/Spiritually, as well as intellectually, understanding God's Full will for our times.

The Church has failed to follow the EGW given counsels that would have led to them experientially/Spiritually, as well as intellectually, understanding God’s Full will for our times.

Update of this previous post:

A Church cannot (continue to) be the “Remnant” unless they are actually “keeping the Commandments of God and the (Gospel) Faith of Jesus as well as also having the Testimony of Jesus, (Rev 12:17; 14:12) particularly for these times, as indeed also included in the SOP. As I had previously responded to you in this Post \(#133056\) \(Link: http://www.maritime-sda-online.com/forums/ubbthreads.php?ubb=showflat&Number=133056#Post133056\), the Church has failed to do so and also to follow the EGW given counsels that would have led to them experientially/Spiritually, as well as intellectually, understanding God’s Full will for our times and so will duly be judged for this. (Matt 7:21-23).

NJK, are you a baptized, tithe paying member of the Project? If so, are you the only confirmed member of the Project? If so, does that mean you are the only person alive who is proclaiming the 3AMs?

Of course you are naturally weighing/judging according to your (limited) knowledge.

In regard to Baptism: Those who join this Project must be baptized in the Holy Spirit, and that its Latter Rain Baptism (= 1SM 109-111)

In regards to tithes paying, I already addressed it to you in Post #135248. A person who just want to contribute a tithe to this project will not be considered as a (full) member sharing in all its benefits and reward

Technically I consider myself much more than a just a member of the project. Indeed, I Constitutionally, and this Governmental Office that I have created and currently occupy, has the last vetoing referential decision on who get accepted as member/citizens of this Remnant Church/New Country Project.

But to simplistically answer your question, since I am the only one thus far who is meeting at least these two criteria, as they fully are for this Project then: Yes.

Originally Posted By: Mountain Man

I would say I am the only one who is preaching the 3AMs in their “fullness”, particularly the Third Angel’s Message which involves the “fuller” message of God’s Sabbatical Principles (Isa 58) and all that they are to practically entail.

Look back through Biblical and Church History and you’ll see that the greatest reforms, transitions and movement of God were started/spearheaded by just one person. These are namely:

Noah, Abraham, Moses, David, Elijah, Jeremiah, Zerubabbel, Ezra, Ezekiel, John the Baptist, Jesus, Paul each individual Reformer -most notably Martin Luther, William Miller, among others.

Again, why did you ask those questions.... There has got to be some point to your questions beyond this apparent mere quibbling self-excusing rhetoric and/or “entrapment” attempt??

The SDA organization, God's endtime remnant church, began with the presence of it's own prophet in the person of Ellen White, who referred to herself as a messenger of God. I can't find anything in her writings that the SDA organization will be replaced by any other organization.

Even if the SDA organization were to be replaced by a new organization, which it won't, I definitely do not see the NJK Project being that new organization.

Is there a prophet connected to your organization, as there is with the SDA organization? I say is, as we still have her writings to go by today, and her writings clearly state that there will NOT be any new organization that will replace the SDA organization. She stated that more than once in her writings as God's prophet/messenger. The Bible only spoke of seven churches with the SDA church being that seventh church. There isn't any mention or hint of an eighth church.

God is not looking for an organization to set up ocean cities, but an organization that will sound the three angels messages to a world that is about to come to a soon end resulting from the very soon 2nd coming of Jesus Christ. The chosen of Israel, physical Israel, entered the earthly promised land. The chosen of Israel today, spiritual Israel, will also soon be entering the Heavenly Promised Land.

Physical Israel failed in that they rejected the Son of God and nailed Him to the cross and then went on to seal that rejection by the stoning of Stephen. This was all clearly predicted in the Bible. There isn't any such prediction that the SDA organization will fail as they failed.

Currently, if they are alive, probably. Since you are the only member of the Project in "good standing" is it safe to say you are living in perfect conformity with "this gospel" (as opposed to "another gospel"). Do you ever sin? If so, how does it affect your membership?

Also, how will you handle it if and when future members of the Project differ with you on various points of truth and doctrine?

Try that link again and search (with your browser - usually control-F) for "CIPO" and "legal/judicial" and read the immediate context and/or click the links or see the associated PDF documentation (see top of Post) for the PDF's link and its instructions. If after reading those immediate contextual explanations you still have questions, let me know. However given the nature of those particular two sources, I may not be at liberty to discuss them in detail.

As I said, those two financing sources are only tow other ways that the project can/will be funded. All of these sources have their own contingencies, however they are quite feasible and would have already been done if those who could have help them be done were all not similarly, Spiritually speaking, worshipping Money/Mammon/"the Sun", including people in the SDA Church.

Really... why not?? Be substantive, i.e., why won't the planned ministry of the NJK Project both be an advancement of what the SDA Church is doing and also be in the Full accomplishment of Christ's Gospel??

You need to read the content of (all of) the links I include in my posts. If you had read in this bio post \(Link: http://njkproject.blogspot.com/2010/12/my-first-vision.html#firstvision\), you would not only have found the answer to your question, but also the inceptive Biblical reason why I have continued upon and maintain this "greater works" course.

The already quoted statement of EGW in LDE 59.1-2 of 'God's unwavering replacement principle' seems pretty clear to me. It is quite typical of SDA's to only be "moved" by a prophecies vs. principles and that is why they are looking first for a Sunday Law, before they engage in all out Gospel Work. And with those who are Spiritual out of tune with God's doings, prophecies are only rightly understood after the fact. Jesus "prophesied" to His disciples many times that He was going to be killed, but all those warning went right over their heads because, all along, 'they really were not mindful of the interests/work/things of God.' (E.g., Matt 16:23).

As for all of the other issues that are interspersely mentoined in your post, and that you have merely restated here, I have already addressed all of them. Read also my responses to other people. No need to restate them here. You need to take all statements on this issue into consideration when forming your view. The EGW statement on "a need for a new organization" just cannot be simply ignored, indeed, as pointed out in this post \(Link: http://njkproject.blogspot.com/2010/11/shaking-in-it-biblical-context.html#newdenomination\) as the White Estate did in its 1992 compilation quoting of 1 SM 179 for LDE 51.1.

And, seriously, just blindly/obliviously/stubbornly peripherally speaking against my project and it tangible needs in its plans for fully functional and successful implementation does not prove anything. You need to engage and Biblically disprove all of the substantive elements I made in those replies. You are also fiatl, dismissively, overlooking the practical Gospel humanitarian ministry that it is being established to do. The Biblical and Present Truth, as it is not readily feasible, is that those who don't fully do so in the end won't be allowed into Heaven (Matt 25:31-46). Those are not my words but Jesus's own.

If you were really fully following EGW's counsels, you would have seen the ministry basis for my Project. See e.g., her comments on Isa as shown in e.g, Welfare Ministry pp. 28-65ff (cf. this post \(Link: http://njkproject.blogspot.com/2009/11/our-final-test.html\)).

Do I ever sin... Yes, don't you?? (Rom 3:23). Not an excuse. Just a human fact. My project however is to also help all those who want to cut out all of the entrenched temptations of Satan, which have also found their way into God's Church and amongst His People. But of course, people do not consider sinful what they cherish, such as letting people die of needless death so that they can continue to live their covetous, ease, self-interested and selfish lives.

Christ “Full Gospel” which is the Gospel of my project is fully involves forgiveness for known and confessed sins. (1 John 1:9). Trust me, whenever it is that I sin, I wish I could just give all of this project up, but then I look , and there is not only no one there to take my place, but also no one elsewhere engaging in doing all of the planned works of this Project. So weighing my sin vs. the sin of e.g., 65-75,000,000 murders per year, I indeed see millions of reasons to not give up this Project. If you think this “weighing” is self-justify/excusing and unbiblical, then just ponder the decision of God not to have David killed when committed the sin of adultery and murder. To say the least,

David was much more than forgiven for that quite deliberate and irreparable lapse.

Originally Posted By: Mountain Man

Constitutionally speaking, through, first a thorough Biblical engaging of the issue of difference through the Project's WBSC institution \(Link: http://njproject.blogspot.com/2008/07/college-of-biblical-research-recruiting.html\) and then through a public vote, according to the voting system of the Project/New Country, which can either be Pastorally Represented (allow yourself to be represented in the vote by the majority decision of your local pastoral staff of 3, "Civilly" Represented (the local "congressional" representative or Directly Represented (a person casting their own vote).

Then following this vote, as a measure of checks for the righteous, there are up to three possible levels of "checking" a substantively wrongful process or issue resolution and/or any deemed crucial further point which may have affected the vote. If all of those three referential vetos are defeated, as the Constitution calls for, then the will expressed in the result of the latest voting will stand. I think that is fully Biblical as Israel could overrule the will of God over them if they persisted on a rebellious and wayward course, even disregarding the injunctive prophetic warnings and reproofs by God's messengers.

The Project is following the Gospel in all that it knows it to include and so there is no need to seek to make a difference. As I had said to you with your odd questioning, if you are trying to make a point then make it in a statement form and I'll address where you may have gone wrong.

In the Bible, indeed back in the OT, God full made provisions that some sins were "tolerated" until the day of Passover, while other sins were to be Capitally punished. We have been over this discussion in another thread. So the NJK Project will fully follow this principles where some sins are not considered by God to needing to be Capitally punished. However they do have to be repented of and confessed. Sinning indifferently and/or with the flippant rationalizing intention of 'merely asking forgiveness' was actually not tolerated by God.

Originally Posted By: Mountain Man

First of all, the OT and NT Biblical principle is that those who want to take such "cutting off" measure must themselves be blameless. Self-righteous, vindictive hypocrisy, as seen in the episode of the woman caught in adultery just won't be honored. And that blameless/sinless "replacing" person better continue the Biblical objectives of this Project or I will just start another one on my own as their unbiblical course will not be honored by God.

Secondly, the NJK Project will operate on a level of just cause and not mere whimsical voting. So for any such "cutting off" matters, there will first be a thorough judicial process. Then an open jury voting will take place. However given the current position that I occupy in the Project, given the transpired fact that others have refused to join the project, disregarding the senseless death taken place, then, for those who have been previously aware of this project and did not aid it, or also other similar disregarding of the poor, then they would have disqualified themselves from participating in any such decision.

About me personally, sure you can ask my family, friends and even some acquaintances. They'll however probably all mention something about not understanding why I have become so totally and single-mindedly engrossed in working on this Project and its related Ministries. People always express their views from their own personal perspective. So for those who don't care to do what I am endeavoring to do, then there opinion of me won't be wholly enthusiastic. I am however, easily much more concerned with pleasing God and being faithful to this calling.

In regards to the Project, as there is very little interest by those who are aware of it, then I would not make much of their view on it. Each person is to come to their own conclusion based upon what will actually be the same information that they would have seen, or have been able to see, if they wanted to.

In regards to my Doctrines and views, just read my blog, they are openly posted there, as well as in Forums such as this one. My website's Site Key \(Link: http://www.njkproject.info/njk/sitekey.html\) page has several links to prior discussion. And if you do an internet search on my commonly used username NJK Project, you'll get any other views/comments which I have publicly stated. In the end, as with any belief, whatever I personally believe will never tangibly affect someone else, either way, unless I act on it. So you should focus on engaging what I have stated or done instead of worrying about what I may or may not intangibly believe.

If my sources of personal funding work out, as they should, then yes, and quite easily. It will however be as a corporation, i.e., I employ people to do the work. Clearly people will do anything for a market price salary. Of course if they do not do it in a Biblical way, as ordered/expected then they'll be fired and replaced by someone else.

I cannot afford to pay anyone to proofread my work, nor do I have the time to do so myself, so for now my writings will remain as is. So "common" people like you will continue to have their out excuse here while more "spiritual" people will expend the effort to get it. In all of this, I am actually looking for people who want to help those who are dying from preventable and curable causes. No much "belief", even "common belief" needed for this! Obviously, that's not your primary concern, so, and take this as formally coming from the gateway "NJK Immigration Ministry", and at the highest level of office there: you actually don't begin to qualify as someone this Project is looking for.

"Wooden" colloquially means somewhat is unrefined and in terms of expressions, it has nothing to do with someone personally, but is just a way of interpreting something. E.g. a wooden translation of Matt 1:18 would be 'Mary was found to be in the belly' however updating this "wooden expression" for our times it is expressed as: 'Mary was pregnant'. So you expecting to have a literal Passover day for a New Covenant context is a wooden view, to actually say the least of your odd questioning here. I think you are more Biblically intelligent than that, but you seem to tactically want to pass as a Spiritual 2-year old who has no Spiritual discernment at all. That doesn't either impress or endear me. Quite to the contrary...

NJK: If the reason is also unbiblical, then I will just start another one on my own as their unbiblical course will not be honored by God.

MM: What would count as unbiblical?

Whatever is not what, paramountly, the Bible exegetically teaches and also the SOP when it does not contradict the Bible.

Then if that is what the exegetical facts indeed bear out, then it is what it is. It would not be the first time in Biblical and Church History when a relative very few, even one person were/was Biblically right vs. the majority. Truth is not determined by popular vote, approval or disapproval of an independently established Truth is.

The Bible and validated SOP and through the research work towards this end by the NJK Project's WBSC Institution.

Have I not done so before when that was the case??? Look back through my forum posts. Those statements were/are part of my "Gospel". Why don't you first try to find where such "unbiblicalness" may be.

Quote:

MM: 3. "So for those who don't care to do what I am endeavoring to do, then there opinion of me won't be wholly enthusiastic." What if no one ever embraces your Project? Can you share the Gospel with everyone everywhere by yourself so Jesus can return?

NJK: If my sources of personal funding work out, as they should, then yes, and quite easily. It will however be as a corporation, i.e., I employ people to do the work. Clearly people will do anything for a market price salary. Of course if they do not do it in a Biblical way, as ordered/expected then they'll be fired and replaced by someone else.

MM: What if no one is willing to work for you?

One thing that is quite certain with Capitalists, which most of the world is, is that everybody has their price, (case in point North American borne mercenary militias going over to war theaters such as Iraq), even if it is higher than market value prices. However with the Project then being in a position to hire anyone on this planet, I don't see to many people preferring to starve themselves, rather than taking such a humanitarian job.

The Religious aspects of the NJK Project, vs. its humanitarian ones, are a different thing and really people cannot, or rather, as I prefer, should not be hired for such Pastoral positions, if they themselves don't have those beliefs. And so in this case, and in this available personal funding context, with ample money and available technology, as seen in e.g., the "Net Events" in the SDA Church, one pastor can preach to a whole, global "denomination" at once. This should not last too long as with ca. 20 years, the first annual generation of the saved would-be aborted babies would be in a position to themselves fill these religious leadership positions, as well as the ones in which non-Project members/citizen were hired. So as willing naturally born NJK Citizen fill in those positions, as anticipated, yet surely not a guarantee, this external hiring will increasingly diminish until it is not needed anymore.

Obviously, as part of my Theological Views, as seen in many of my blog posts, I do not have these e.g.: 'time is running out', 'the end is definitely set' and 'Final Events will begin before the (actual) Gospel work is completed'. So I do not believe like you that probation will close before this work is done, and, also according to my Theological Views \(Link: http://njkproject.blogspot.com/2009/11/heart-of-elijah-message-malachi-456.html\), 'if (the actual/Biblical) probation closes and the only one who believes my view of the Gospel', then I, exegetically/factually, feel sorry (Mal 4:6) for those who had not been sealed by these Truths, because when this Sealing Work \(Link: http://njkproject.blogspot.com/2011/06/coming-of-sealing-angel.html\) (Rev 6:14-7:3) and it resulting Full Gospel Work \(Link: http://njkproject.blogspot.com/2010/01/real-outpouring-of-holy-spirit.html\) (Rev 7:4-14:20) is done, and then the actual probation duly closes, it is then that the Plagues will begin to fall (Rev 15ff;) on those who have rejected this Full Gospel message (e.g., Rev 14:6-12).

MM: 4. "In regards to my Doctrines and views, just read my blog, they are openly posted there, as well as in Forums such as this one." Your style of writing is too difficult for me to read. I cannot discern what you believe from what you have written. Please pay a gifted editor to edit your beliefs so that the common people, like me, can grasp your beliefs. That's what Ellen White did.

NJK: I cannot afford to pay anyone to proofread my work, nor do I have the time to do so myself, so for now my writings will remain as is. So "common" people like you will continue to have their out excuse here while more "spiritual" people will expend the effort to get it. In all of this, I am actually looking for people who want to help those who are dying from preventable and curable causes. No much "belief", even "common belief" needed for this! Obviously, that's not your primary concern, so, and take this as formally coming from the gateway "NJK Immigration Ministry", and at the highest level of office there: you actually don't begin to qualify as someone this Project is looking for.

MM: I am disqualified to be a member of the Project because I cannot make heads or tails out of your unedited writings? That seems harsh.

You actually don't begin to qualify simply because you are not even making an effort to do so. Many other people, though not actually interested in the project, have made the effort on their part to understand what I have written. You obviously prefer to use this as a self-justifying excuse to not read what I have posted. That's your choice and your decision. Seems to me that you can do better and make the needed effort, if you are actually serious at all here.

Sad for you. The Project does not succeed or fail with you, nor with people like you who do not want to make the effort. People who e.g., do not want to read the Bible make the same quibbling excuses.

Originally Posted By: Mountain Man

What makes you think that I would do so later, indeed when I have the money to hire such secretarial services. Indeed if I could hire a secretary to do this kind of non-analytic work it would save me much time. But that is not a luxury that I can afford now. I hope however you are not relying on this excuse because, any informed and postponing people like you will go through a much stricter immigration process before being admitted a Full Members/Citizens of the NJK Project. Such people who cannot embrace the humanitarian cause but prefer to, as I actually suspect with you, dishonestly quibble of peripherals, are the last kinds of characters that this project is looking for as members.

And it seems to me that a person like you with a BA in Pastoral Ministry and a MA in Biblical Studies should not have any substantive problems readily grasping what is written. I recall my early days doing Scholarly Biblical research. I literally had to wade through the Scholarly jargon, but I did the effort and actually quite readily caught on/up, to say the least. You can start with a similar investment and a demonstration of non-frivolity towards this project. And 'helping those who are dying of preventable and curable deaths' seems quite clear to me, but obviously that is not your primary concern, if at all. In that case, why bother with the NJK Project, since you also don't believe most of what I have posted about my views which you manifestly have understood???

Again what's your game/point in all of this??! the fact that you only ask questions and do not answer any, such as these, that are asked to you clearly indicates to me that you have a concealed and dishonest agenda here.

1. "odd questioning"

3. "self-justifying excuse"

With that attitude, NJK, your project is doomed to failure. In fact, your response to MM here reminds me of something that happened to a relative of mine.

He had a website which was hosted by a commercial hosting company, let's call it "Welkhost." "Welkhost" had been a pretty decent web host for several years for him, and he had both a personal site and a business site online through them. Furthermore, "Welkhost" was a very well-known hosting service, and utilized by tens of thousands of people, if not more.

One day, there was some issue with the account that my relative had with

"Welkhost," and the details are long gone from my memory as to what that issue was. Unfortunately, he found that "Welkhost" did not care to be reasonable about things, nor to make any amends for whatever the issue was. As he was on the phone, he heard one representative for "Welkhost" tell him something to the effect of "Your issue is not important to us. You're just one person."

My relative responded back to the "Welkhost" company that, yes, perhaps he was just one person, but he happened to have multiple accounts with them, not just his own, but those of other companies that he provided services to, and that "Welkhost" would be certain to not see his business again, nor would he ever recommend them again to anyone.

The regional manager for "Welkhost," at a much higher level than said representative who had made the flippant remark, telephoned back with profuse apologies and even offered a very nice perc (I don't remember what this was either, but might have been a free three-months of hosting, or something even better), if it might change my relative's mind and bring him back.

He refused. He went with another company, and kept his word.

NJK, Jesus would have died for "one person," and your remark shows that you do not understand the true worth of a human soul. Without an understanding of the worth of one person, how can you ever hope to be received of the masses?

Blessings,

Green Cochoa.

So make that two (more) then, Green Cochoa.... See if that "causes me to fail". I actually prefer to see my project fail than have it be "freely" aided by guileful, faultfinding and dishonest people who do not actually care about helping people in need and thus who will only then most shamefully cause it to fail. Even if Mountain Man could fund the entire project himself I would not accept it from him for Spiritual reasons. And God has long ago set it up so that I don't have to grovel and cavil to such pretentiousness. Though the lone course options will take more time, that however will actually not be at my responsibility (Isa 63:1-6). Even secular countries bar, or even revoke someone's citizenship if they make guileful/false statements in the application process, why shouldn't this be the case for the Kingdom of God (Rev 21:27; 22:15b). Why does the cause of God All-Mighty have to put up with self-important, spineless, dishonest people, with actually no Spiritual discernment!?? And Mountain Man is not the first person who has failed, even preemptively, "this application process". In fact there is a distinct spiritual "tolerance zero" for SDA's. Call it the Gideon criteria.

(Judges 7). No “conquering” entity (military, corporation, even a Church) worth anything puts up with, nor seeks such potential internal detriment/nefariousness. If one is that Spiritually dull and lackadaisical then, by all means, do stay in the SDA Church!! They need such people to fulfill prophecies.

So rather than waste my time with such people who actually only have an impish agenda, I work on the various task current sub tasks that will make this project fully successful even if no one else actually “helps” (i.e., voluntarily/freely) me. (= Dan 11:45b \(Link: http://njkproject.blogspot.com/2009/11/daniel-11-text.html\)).

And if I wanted to be “popular”, I would have endeavored this in a completely different and unbiblical way. In the end, God’s glorious will through this project will surely Triumph and I feel sorry for those who will either be outside then, will have been cast out. (Matt 22:1-14). Indeed you’ll be surprised who will get accepted to this project, if they will, over the likes of you all. It indeed it “typically, Biblical”.

You all just cannot be serious in all of this... They must be handing sleeping pills in the SDA Church.

Are you actually saying that some of the SOP contradicts the Bible?

Yes some statements that EGW made did not exegetically check out and she even correct many of them herself. EGW was not inerrant nor infallible. I’ve discussed many of them in this forum and on my blog. To succinctly list them (again), off the top of my head, and without any references:

- The identity of a Herod in the Bible
- The actual speaker of an NT statement
- The nature of Jesus’s address to Mary at Cana
- The storyline and account of the ascension of Christ in DA
- The name of Satan in Heaven - not “Lucifer”
- The number of temptations of Christ (4 not 3)
- Her Theological understanding of God and the Future

-Her specific interpretational understanding of the 70 Weeks among others

In such non-direct revelation areas, EGW was completely exegetically dependent and in that regard she did not know more than what the scholars of her day knew, and it mainly only through prophetic revelations that she made statements that have been later proven to be exegetically accurate.

God, even supernaturally, designed long in advance for this Project to be fully realized by one person (Dan 11:45b \(Link: http://njkproject.blogspot.com/2009/11/daniel-11-text.html\)), who am I to lower his standard for any membership admission! (1SM 109-111)

In these first disciples was presented a marked diversity. They were to be the world's teachers, and they represented widely varied types of character. There were Levi Matthew the publican, called from a life of business activity, and subservience to Rome; the zealot Simon, the uncompromising foe of the imperial authority; the impulsive, self-sufficient, warm-hearted Peter, with Andrew his brother; Judas the Judean, polished, capable, and mean-spirited; Philip and Thomas, faithful and earnest, yet slow of heart to believe; James the less and Jude, of less prominence among the brethren, but men of force, positive both in their faults and in their virtues; Nathanael, a child in sincerity and trust; and the ambitious, loving-hearted sons of Zebedee. . . . {CC 288.2}

Of the twelve disciples, four were to act a leading part, each in a distinct line. In preparation for this, Christ taught them, foreseeing all. James, destined to swift-coming death by the sword; John, longest of the brethren to follow his Master in labor and persecution; Peter, the pioneer in breaking through the barriers of ages, and teaching the heathen world; and Judas, in service capable of pre-eminence above his brethren, yet brooding in his soul purposes of whose ripening he little dreamed. {CC 288.3}

In order successfully to carry forward the work to which they had been called, these disciples, differing so widely in natural characteristics, in training, and in habits of life, needed to come into unity of feeling, thought, and action. This unity it was Christ's object to secure. . . . The burden of His labor for them is expressed in His prayer to the Father, "that they all may be one; as thou, Father, art in me, and I in thee, that they also may be one in us" (John 17:21). {CC 288.4}

In the apostles of our Lord there was nothing to bring glory to themselves. It was evident that the success of their labors was due only to God. The lives of these men, the characters they developed, and the mighty work that God wrought through them, are a testimony to what He will do for all who are teachable and obedient. {CC 288.5}

NJK, you are wrong about me. I am trying to understand you, your doctrine, and your Project. You are asking me to abandon everything that has been near and dear to me for 29 years. It would be similar to me asking you to abandon your Project. Your writing style is wordy and awkward and I cannot make heads or tails out of what you're saying. In the last 10 years you have been unable to persuade even one person to embrace you, your doctrine, or your Project. Can you blame me for being cautious? And now you are basting me with cruel epithets. People were attracted to Jesus because He was kind and caring and told the truth. You are coming across as anything but kind and caring. And you are definitely not telling the truth about me. Please reconsider your opinion of me. Give this process a chance.

Technically speaking, though, he is alone. His testimony makes it clear. No one, other than himself, is embracing him, his doctrine, or his Project. He is working hard to help others discover the truth as he sees it. However, it appears he has given up on us.

You all are spiritual dishonest in your Biblical discussion. Whenever you are confronted with an Biblical/Exegetical point that you cannot disprove, you just ignore it and check out and worst just blindly/stubbornly/indifferently restate your already disproven points. That is just plain spiritual madness to me. So in my books, which is what matter for the project that I am responsible for and directing, you are actually writing yourselves off.

You do not even understand what being an "Adventist" actually "fully" entails. So I am indeed mocking the fact that you really Biblically are mere "nominal/professing Adventists". Read the SOP and prophetically see how such 'nominal Adventist react to the 'fuller Sabbatical proclamation'.

You all, by you own actions and oppositions to the transpiring “fuller Sabbath teaching and proclamation’ being now done, you are just fulfilling that typical and prophetic role. But as with any applicable Bible or SOP passage that I post, you will just ignore it, thinking, like toddlers, that by doing so, it has disappeared and does not have an application. Continue to fool yourselves for that is how these prophecies began to be fulfilled and will surely be completely fulfilled.

Let's put it this way, since I believe that your peripheral reasoning is soundly defeated by the substantive fact that Truth is absolute, this is my ministry, and I'll run it as I think it is most Biblical. I have not regretted this stance at all and, knowing what I Biblically know, actually will not, however it ends up in the unwritten end. I would have done my part and just because people preferred to go by their worldly ways, that does not defeat the end purposes of God.

11:3 Lord, they have killed thy prophets, and digged down thine altars; and I am left alone, and they seek my life.

11:4 But what saith the answer of God unto him? I have reserved to myself seven thousand men, who have not bowed the knee to the image of Baal.

11:5 Even so then at this present time also there is a remnant according to the election of grace.

11:6 And if by grace, then is it no more of works: otherwise

11:6 And if by grace, then is it no more of works: otherwise grace is no more grace. But if it be of works, then is it no more grace: otherwise work is no more work. (Romans 11:1-6)

I have fully commented on that common and popular knee-jerk mischaracterization of Elijah here \(Link: http://njkproject.blogspot.com/2009/10/testimony-to-church-part-1a.html#Elijah_7000\) on my blog. But of course you probably did not read it. Also read what the end time prophetic application of that episode is in that post. If you think that the Biblical course is to keep silent like those mercifully spared 7000 then, you are moreoverly the one who is woefully (Rev 11:13, 14) mistaken.

At worst, you are only being exhorted to Biblically improve what is Biblical. Indeed in this Shaking time, only what is Biblical will remain and will be built upon.

Granted the fact that the Second Coming, by necessity, will be delayed, even way beyond our lifetime is a hard pill to swallow, which I also sadly came to terms with a long time ago, but seeing the great potential witnessing work that can be done by this Global Ministry, then it has indeed greatly heartened me and even my own passing away before its testimony is fully accomplish is a very small price to pay. So I wholeheartedly, in trusting faith, bear this similar cross of Christ.

And it Biblically is not, as the SOP fully teaches, as if Jesus will return if His Gospel Commission is not first fully done as He expects it. Matt 24:14.

It has its necessary purpose (Isa 6:9-13 & Matt 13:10-17)... if your are willing to accept it... As I have previously said, I, in my early days, made the sacrificial effort to 'make heads and tails" of the quite confusing Scholarly jargon that I had to engage without having even completed a quarter of Biblical Studies. As commercially published writings, the writing style and syntax was impeccable, however that litany of e.g., original language words in original script, Scholarly abbreviations, technical terms, let alone scholarly expression of concepts was enough to drive me insane, to the point where my only option then was to quit my undergraduate classes so that I could, even buying Seminary textbooks, get up to speed with the insider language involved in these works. So I think that, as my writings explicitly involve very little, if any, Scholarly "languages", but rather speak a language that especially you as an SDA Leader should readily grasp (i.e., Biblical & SOP terms and referencing) then you can make a similar effort to 'figure out my writing style' if you to want to personally grasp these (further/eschatological) Biblical Truths that I am claiming to have found. Nothing is totally free and at least I am concedingly not requiring money from you first to consider them. I had to pay the price to dig up the precious pearl of truth. (Matt 13:44 - COL 103-114), I think you can also especially if now, you merely want a share in what I have already greatly expended to, at even temporally irreparable costs, find.

Just looking at the Bible and Church History, it is clear that Truth itself is not affect by how people respond to it. Each person have their own pet reasons as to why they reject a Biblical message. That is neither my responsibility, nor my fault, nor actually against my required “designs”. This truth has still been advancing and those rejections have only serve to fulfill prophecies surrounding it. How am I to interfere with this crucially laid out plan. Some people need to hit a wall in order to see the truth and that is apparently what God foresaw as necessary for Laodicea, as it was also necessary with Israel of old. Then they could come to their senses.

In full accordance to presently fulfilling prophecies, that “judgement” aspect is indeed what is being carried out on God’s Judah and Jerusalem (= the Sealing of Ezek 9). So I make no apologies for it. I would be quite vitally unfaithful to my calling if I just overlooked what indeed needs to be sternly reprovved and totally uprooted. So I only fear God’s view of me in that regard and not any man’s. (Acts 5:29, 32).

In the end, with both ‘Elijah and Elisha’ and then ‘John the Baptist and Jesus’ it was only the people acceptance of Biblical Truth that concretized their true standing. How many of those people remain faithful to Jesus, even from His own disciples, when He was hanging on the Cross, obediently carrying out the requirements of His Gospel Truth??!

I moreoverly have no patience with people who explicitly or effectively have a compoundedly unbiblical and outright, murderously evil: ‘let those that our Capitalist system won’t help just croak especially since Jesus is going to come and rewards us for that preferred stance’ (contra Matt 25:31-46). That is all the product of deficient Theology, and most experientially tellingly enough to me, it is only when I practically set aside my Evangelistic objectives aside to also seek to help people in vital need that these most Biblical Truths began to increasingly unlock themselves and reveal the Full Gospel of Christ.

Succinctly said, you all, for various base reasons, have given up on pursuing this Project and helping to realize its objectives. Yet you are still fulfilling your vital prophetic parts which will indeed serve to convince others, particularly non-SDA of the Biblicalness of this project (Rom 11:25-27 principle.)

NJK, you are convinced I am dishonest. So, you're right, this is a huge waste of time. I have thoroughly studied the 28 fundamental SDA beliefs and I am convinced they are 100% correct. I do not share your conclusion that Ellen White was mistaken on the key points you have named. I find it shocking you believe you are right and she is wrong.

Re: Is God replacing the SDA Church with the NJK Project as His end-time Remnant Church? - 07/21/11 03:33 PM Posted by: NJK Project

Indeed for all of these three points of complete difference, any further discussion with you is not worthwhile. Indeed for the underlying reason that in all of these issues, you are simply ignoring the clear and incontrovertible facts of these matters...and you are not indeed dishonest!?? Indeed, as typical of you with things you cannot refute, you do not give a Biblically substantive reason why but just pompously restate that you are right. I moreoverly have no time for such stubborn pride.

Yet, despite all of these differences, none of those issues of them actually make it that we should not be doing all that we can to help those in vital need, as I said, indeed from my own experience, if you were willing to do so, Many such Biblical truths and realities would be easily and outrightly understandable to you. So suit yourself... God's true work will continue to advanced to its "Planned", "Triumphant" "End".

I am seeking to accomplish Jesus' full Gospel Commission. Happily, I realize that I am not the only participant. Are you seeking to accomplish it? How many languages do you speak? How will you reach those in the "10-40 window" who represent the majority of the remaining heathen in this world?

If you, NJK, must fulfill this High Commission all by your lonesome self, since you will not allow others who do not agree with you to participate in your "Project," I wonder how many of these people will be "reached."

I'm guessing you have about two languages to your ability--both European ones. What are you going to do with Asia? Do you realize how many people in Southeast Asia do not speak a word of English or French?

Furthermore, do you understand how long it takes to master an Asian language? Did you know that there are over 86,000 characters in Chinese, and that there is no alphabet? Do you realize how many YEARS even the Chinese must study their own language before they can be learned?

Do you have an ability to pronounce sounds that you have never heard before in your life? Can you recognize the subtle differences in tonal quality of words? Did you know that just a slight difference in inflection can change the meaning of a word entirely? For example, in Thai, if you say "ma?" (หมา) it will mean "dog" and "ma?!" (ม้า) means "horse" (and there is a tonal difference there that those punctuation marks do the best I can muster without actual sketches). In Chinese "ma?" (馬) means "horse" instead of "dog." Would you be able to master all of the subtleties of these various languages without confusing them?

Would you be able to take on any "disciples," seeing that once you have some small disagreement with them, they are no longer permitted to join your organization?

Let's, see...three years so far, and.....zero, ZERO, converts to your project? How many years will it take you to evangelize the "10-40 window" at that rate?

I'm not expecting you to answer all of these questions. These are just points to ponder. I'm sure you have some plan. But at some point, some metacognition about it would be in order.

Blessings,

Green Cochoa.

Re: Is God replacing the SDA Church with the NJK Project as His end-time Remnant Church? - 07/21/11 08:20 PM Posted by: Green Cochoa

NJK,

It boils down to this: God is at the helm. God's people number in the thousands. You are not the only one, and you have no authority to say who can and who cannot be one of God's disciples. That is God's royal domain. God's alone it is to lay out the master plan, to fill the ranks with His own, to pour out His Spirit, and to finish His work.

HIS work.

Yes, we are privileged to participate in God's work. God even, generously, will credit us with having done what He did through us. Yet the work is His, and He is at the reins.

I am aware of this. (I presumedly gather you are not right now in Asia but, supposedly, 'on leave' in the Washington State area). From my prior discussion with you on Abortion, which did seem to change your mind at all, I don't how you are even thinking to be accomplishing Christ full commission as you don't have a problem with people having abortions when the feel like it. So Like I asked you before \(Post #131722\) \(Link: http://www.maritime-sda-online.com/forums/ubbthreads.php?ubb=showflat&Number=131722#Post131722\), as you are at least, teaching other people to violate one of God's Ten Commandments: "how then do you do any evangelism, since its all "relative"??"

Furthermore, the espousing of Capitalism to conduct God's work comes to involve the needed violation of all of His Commandments \(Link: http://njkproject.blogspot.com/2009/11/sealing-of-gods-people-part-2-ezekiel-9.html\). So that is incontrovertibly not the way to go. And so why should I not also be barringly considering such people as 'the very least' (Matt 5:19).

And by the way, my optional 'Project hiring plan' is just out of the necessity of being all alone in this project and will only last a few years until the generation of those saved, can begin to fully take care of themselves. Then God's socio-economic sabbatical principles will be fully in use. Still, in the hiring plan phase, I plan to freely pay for the pertinent education and training and hiring of people in Third World countries rather than hiring people in the First World. So it will actually be going against the normative capitalistic approach of selectively not doing anything more than what is needed, nor going out of one's way to help someone.

Originally Posted By: Green Cochoa

That is also my point. The lot of you are doing as much as you could be doing if those self-defeating, systemic Capitalistic measures were not used, to the point where a person who engages in serious and deep foreign missionary work, vs. the mini-exotic vacations sponsored by SDA Colleges or worst, English language school, is literally left to scrounge all alone for their survival.

Yes, in God's way, through the NJK Project. As with Elijah vs. the 850 false prophets of 'Capitalism', with God power much more can be done even by one man. So I don't mind you all going first and futilely praying to your god to finish the work.

Through the most convicting and convincing living National and Ecclesiastical testimony of the NJK and its outreach Sabbatical humanitarian, socio-economic and Gospel ministries. But such things are not developed overnight, though it easily could have, but warring with obstructing Capitalists in both the Church

By simply in the incontrovertible testimony of saving and fully caring for up to 65,000,000 people per year, every dark corner of this planet will be reached. E.g., the girl in a dark alley who is seeking to have an abortion she cannot afford will instead be told by her friends given the widespread news of the NJK's 'Aborting Abortion' Ministry (Link: http://www.njkproject.info/njk/hc_ministry/worldaid/abortions.html), that she could carry out the pregnancy to term and then go to a nearby NJK Mission and have a safe hospital delivery and also be given up to 10% of her country's GDP per capita in cash. In fact she will be able to receive part of this award with each continuing month of her pregnancy. So as with the norm, where there is money to be made, the news will easily spread.

Hire local translators.

And that relatedly is also a part of my gripe with the SDA Church. It's Capitalistic approach which results in the Regions outside of the USA, indeed even Canada, being comparatively quite resource poor leading to Spiritual undernourishment of members impeded the actually simple approach of having properly educated and trained local missionaries. And so the "saviors" from the USA have to be sent to these foreign fields and since this is financially too costly, then the mission work of the Church lags on. And all of these (actually revolving door) and spiritually cheap conversions in the SDA Church which loses about 1,300 baptized member per day \(Link: <http://njkproject.blogspot.com/2009/12/fallacy-of-non-paid-lay-pastoring.html>\), is not the way to prepare a people/Church for the quite deceptive end time events. So that approach will surely result in mass failure.

To me, and for my Project that is all that really matters, people who are dishonest, i.e., who prefer to hide their heads in the sand, ignore facts and are indifferent to this, and moreover have a super sensitive & touchy, prideful, "Prima dona" attitude, are the very last people that this project is interested in, particularly if they are SDA's. I won't take time to babysit SDA's, however I will have much patience with non-SDA's who will probably, if only spiritually, form 11/12 of this project in the end. (Rev 7:4-8). It is not my fault if people in the Church, even leaders, are Biblically indolent, indifferent, illiterate and/or outrightly unrighteous. It is all a consequence of the systemic dysfunction in the Church which, by God's leading, I was able to most tangibly see for myself upon my first arrival at Andrews in the Fall of 1997.

In the annals of human history, the growth of nations, the rise and fall of empires, appear as if dependent on the will and prowess of man; the shaping of events seems, to a great degree, to be determined by his power, ambition, or caprice. But in the word of God the curtain is drawn aside, and we behold, above, behind, and through all the play and counterplay of human interest and power and passions, the agencies of the All-merciful One, silently, patiently working out the counsels of His own will.

What does this SOP statement on ‘God’s orchestrating of World History’ have to do with this present issue of ‘God having already chosen the means by which his Church in rebellion is to be judged and humbled???’

It is LOL comical, indeed most vividly to me, that you all claim to want to discuss what I believe, yet when I clearly state what I Biblically and Spiritually believe, citing Biblical and SOP passages that I know and believe are being fulfilled by my actions and ministry, on top of referring to exposition on these beliefs from my blog, you all just childishly cavil into a secularly-minded hole and prefer to make arguments that completely avoid engaging those Spiritual issues... as if that changed anything. I just proves that you all cannot really Biblically defend what you claim to believe. That too is a fulfillment of Bible prophecy, and indeed typologically reflects the mentality of those, from especially the leadership, who were opposing Jesus during his Ministry, as if I can so easily, without any defeating challenge, state, demonstrate and prove that (1) your Remnant Church has lost its previous standing before God, (2) that you all are not actually keeping God’s Commandments and (3) what the SOP prophesied of you will not happened in the literal way as you expect it, given this prolongation of time (Link: http://njkproject.blogspot.com/2010/12/unrolling-of-scroll.html), then that all proves my point of systemic Biblical deficiency in the SDA Church where you cannot Biblically prove what you believe. And you thought that you were ready for the end where “Mark of the Beast” people would also so easily exploit all of these holes in your doctrines, practices and teachings. In fact you all, as it is the status today, would have just morphed into being a Mark of the Beast \(Link: http://njkproject.blogspot.com/2011/03/fuller-understanding-of-mark-of-beast.html\) supporting part of that apostasied and Satan-headed group. (EW 266-269). So just continue hiding your heads in the sand. That is really doing wonders for you... adverse prophecies-fulfilling wonders!!

Are you serious in even thinking you can make such a statement???? Or worse, that I would even begin to consider obey it. As I told you privately for a similar statement, 'You are really full of yourself.' Your glib statements makes you sound as if you are literally detached from reality here.

Your exegetical incompetence, indifferent and dishonest unbiblical answers, lack of Spiritual discernment and Spiritual blindness is what is intolerable. (PK 139.3-142.2) But of course, you will never see this of yourself. You just keep on piling on demonstrative evidence to my inceptive observation about you.

Ohhhh.... Can I post a reply now, or should I just let you make any statement about me and talk it silently... or again, was that prior statement just another one of your statement that actually do not mean anything but are just intended to make you look good.

Where EGW disagrees with what the Bible says, I will continue to point this out. It is the Final Events halting, failure of the Church that has caused the prophecies of EGW to be postponed to, at least currently, merely be Spiritually fulfilled. And you still have not proven what you believe, not what you insist is Biblically accurate from EGW with the Bible. So focus any energy you want to expend in this thread on such substantive proving requirement. As much as this cannot register with you: 'you just repeating something does not make it the Truth.'

Re: Is God replacing the SDA Church with the NJK Project as His end-time Remnant Church? - 07/23/11 10:13 AM Posted by: NJK Project

To be most clear here, the SOP indeed said that the SDA Church could be replaced as God's Remnant Church if there was such a "need" (e.g., 1 SM 179; LDE 59-62). In fact it is the Sealing \(EW 36-38\) \(Link: http://njkproject.blogspot.com/2011/06/coming-of-sealing-angel.html\)-following Shaking, indeed as in its full Biblical understanding \(Link: http://njkproject.blogspot.com/2010/11/shaking-in-it-biblical-context.html\), that produces that Remnant Switch to a new movement that will then have that responsibility of Fully accomplishing God's work. So the issue is not at all there. The issue actually is that I am saying, based upon information \(Link: http://njkproject.blogspot.com/2010/12/my-first-vision.html#firstvision\), observations \(Link: http://njkproject.blogspot.com/2010/12/seventh-day-adventists-believe.html\) and \(prophetic\) \(Link: http://njkproject.blogspot.com/2009/11/sealing-of-gods-people.html\) beliefs \(Link: http://njkproject.blogspot.com/\) that there now, and for quite a while, is such a "need" = Psa 119:126 \(Link: http://njkproject.blogspot.com/2009/11/sealing-of-gods-people-part-2-ezekiel-9.html\):

What! shall Seventh-day Adventists relax their devotedness when all their capabilities and powers should be placed on the Lord's side; when an unflinching testimony, noble and uplifting, should come from their lips? "Therefore I love thy commandments above gold; yea, above fine gold." {7BC 981.11}

When the law of God is most derided and brought into the most contempt, then it is time for every true follower of Christ, for those whose hearts have been given to God, and who are fixed to obey God, to stand unflinchingly for the faith once delivered to the saints. "Then shall ye return, and discern between the righteous and the wicked, between him that serveth God and him that serveth him not." It is time to fight when champions are most needed (RH June 8, 1897). {7BC 981.12}

So the actual pivotal issue here is to show that there is not such a "need". I.e., the current organization of the SDA Church is fully doing Christ's Gospel Commission and is not hampering it in any way. And an "indifferent" stance, especially to the plight of the millions of poor, suffering and dying, even for "Religious claims" such as a supposedly 'soon Second Coming', is neither the Christlike (e.g., COL 69.1), Righteous (e.g., Matt 25:31-46), nor Biblical (e.g., Isa 58) answer or solution (Luke 10:25-37). As EGW says 'The tares [in the Church] represent a class who are the fruit or embodiment of error, of false principles.' {COL 70.3}

Again, I Biblically clearly see that the organization that will result after the Shaking is complete is being set up in the NJK Project, however SDA's cannot see this chiefly because they are rejected the Full meaning and implication of God's Sabbath (= EW 33.2).

NJK, you quoting the SOP doesn't carry much weight since you reject so much of what Ellen wrote. Why should we believe you? It's hypocritical to reject her as unbiblical on the one hand and then cite her as authoritative on the other hand. You can't have it both ways.

Like usual Mountain Man, you do everything, however unbiblical, to self-justifying/righteous-ly skirt the substantive issue at hand:

That's Spiritually and factually false, and a straw man and red herring argument. I only reject the quite small portion of what I don't see agrees with the Bible. And it is by her own instruction to make the Bible our final authority. Only you can't get your mind to be exegetically judicious.

Again part of your gross and false exaggeration... what's the problem here. You cannot read what I have quoted, which means that I agree with what she said. If I had instead quoted a passage where she says that they 'plan of salvation was setup from eternity' which is contrary to her own direct revelation on it, but she evidently never chronologically, accurately understood, by God's allowance (as with the Great Disappointment Truth covering up), then you would have made a Spiritually and factually True statement.

That's only Biblical as she was not infallible nor spoke "ex cathedra" in every thing she said. Rather than confront her errors, even the ones she saw and corrected which showed that she was not infallible, you prefer to attack those who 'make the Bible the final arbitrator'. So you are actually an "EGW Christian" instead of a "Bible Christian". Any "authority" is only valid when it is based on Truth. Otherwise it is a tyranny and you are part of a cult. (cf. Acts 17:11)

In fact, my view considers EGW more authoritative than yours because I am setting out to observe all of her counsels, which include those on Isa 58 (e.g., Welfare Ministry 28-65ff), while you just prefer to ignore them. Furthermore, you think that if one does so, as I am endeavoring to do, then all of her Final Events prophecies will come to naught, while my view fully, not only see that they probably will still have a most literal application in the end, if that is what the circumstances then require, but they are currently being, at the very least, being Spiritually fulfilled, except for prophecies dealing with the SDA Church (i.e., The Sealing & the Shaking). You are the one who is quite Spiritually, Biblically and Prophetically ignorant of these applicable development. Sleep on....

And if those circumstances in the end make it so, they may indeed not need to be literally fulfilled (Jer 18:1-10ff) and their only needed fulfillment would have been in their current, more Spiritual application, as this NJK movement would have come to complete God's will on Earth. Indeed just like the Second Coming could have occurred in ca. 1850 and then ca. 1888 and time did not have to extend to 2011+. Yet human nature being what it is, especially when all is going well and much time has passed, that is probably unlikely.

That's right, but not how you maliciously, mindlessly intended it. According to the Bible, (e.g, 1 Thess 5:19-21) one is to accept what is Biblical and reject what is not, from even a prophetic utterance.

I suggest you stop trying to understand me according to you "limited" knowledge and reasoning and actually, accurately and thoroughly engage what I said. So keep such false statements to yourself. You are only playing, action-for-action, the typical part of the 'non-noble minded' people in Acts 17:5-8 (contra vs. 11).

[Reply to Mountain Man: ‘You have a problem with EGW, not me!’]

Ellen has already proven everything I believe from the Bible. You are disagreeing with her - NOT ME!!!! Leave me out of this and address Ellen. I agree with her.

When you misapply and misinterpret EGW then, I have a disagreement with you pointedly. And when I have a difference with EGW then I do clearly say that I am disagreeing with her in those points that contradict the Bible. Furthermore, you are the one who ‘came to her defense’, and moreover you are the one who started this thread to question/oppose my view, whatever your ever changing intention was/is. I have been questioning your, non-pejoratively stated: ‘sanity’ lately, based on the sudden observable change in your recent responses after an absence on your part. Seems to me you are not being rational, at all, anymore!! Indeed your spurious, illogical and gas-lighting comments make no common sense to me at all, let alone, Biblical sense. Drunk with pride??

July 26, 2011

[Reply to Mountain Man: ‘Claim of my disagreement with the SOP (i.e., vs. EGW’s own understandings)’]

Pride? Yes, I am very proud of what Jesus has shared with the SDA Church through the Spirit of Prophecy (Ellen White). Without this solid anchor I couldn’t be so confident in the truths that make up the SDA Church. Nor could I so readily detect false teachers. I pity the people who disagree with the truths contained in the SOP.

So... (leaving many things unresponded to in what you have subjectively, conflatedly blurted out here)... then, you fully agree that we, including the Church should be seeking to full do meet the needs of those in vital need as God/Jesus/the Bible teach (e.g., Isa 58, Matt 25:31-46) which EGW fully endorsed and recommended (e.g., WM 28-65ff)??

And the Spirit of Prophecy did not end with EGW. To think so is to make the same error as those during the reformation. God will continue to speak to new developments in His Church and with His People by whichever means He has appointed. You just need to learn how to [u]Biblically[/u] test a message. The ‘if EGW did not say it’, (which she actually both did say it, even if by deliberately and knowing leaving the possibility for it to be understood’), does not begin to be the Biblical approach or answer.

[Response to Daryl F: Inclusively quoting Mar 216.7 & 217.6 which mention the name “Seventh-day Adventist” during the prophecying of final events]

NJK Project,

Please read the following from EGW, especially the bolded and underlined parts of the two texts below:

[Mar 216.1-216.7 & 217.1-217.7 quoted]

This clearly shows that the SDA Church will be the organization right to the 2nd Coming of Jesus Christ, which refutes your claim that the SDA Church will be replaced by another organization.

I can see the reasoning in your conclusion jump here, however that is actually, Spiritually-speaking, very [u]shallow[/u] way of looking at this issue, as there is indeed much more involved than a name. To me this all typologically replays the situation with the 1st Century Jews who claimed that they were God’s chosen people simply because they were ‘in the right lineage and nation’. However God clearly showed that the name “Israel” (= Seventh-day Adventist) was a spiritual name and applied to people who actually did what that name [u]fully[/u] entailed.

There is also the issue, as I have said before, that they tangibly is this need for a new organization as there is a systemic and most deeply entrenched, indeed to virtually every member, hindrance to accomplishing God’s Full Gospel Commission. Like I said before, if you don’t think that is the case, just seek to get the Church leaders or members to live according to simply by Isa 58 and Matt 25:31-46, which are both binding and destiny determinative end time mandates.

There are also several other issues in relation to those EGW statements such as:

-the application of the Jer 18:1-13 ‘change of mind’ principles, however one would first need to Biblically understand the doctrine on [url=http://njkproject.blogspot.com/2009/10/book-preview-god-all-mighty.html]‘God and the Future’[/url] to see and understand that God can radically alter what He had prophetically said before if future circumstances require it, as they indeed do today.

-that organization replacement issue was not a “needed” [u]present truth[/u] for EGW as there was not such a need then

-Not that it Spiritually affects my deeper understanding on who actually is God’s people, but your quotings from the 1976 Devotional compilation Maranatha are respectively from: Mar 216.1-7 = RH, July 16, [b]1901[/b] & Mar 217.1-7 = RH, August 22, [b]1893[/b]. As I understand it in [url=http://njproject.blogspot.com/2011/01/gods-whirlwind-judgement-on-sda-church.html]this 1908 Judgement vision[/url], which mirrors [url=http://njproject.blogspot.com/2009/10/testimony-to-church-part-1a.html]Rev 11[/url], EGW had a radical view shift as to what the future of the SDA Church will be, to the point where she was shown that “There was not a Seventh-day Adventist to be seen”. I understand this to be depictive of the virtual, if not literal, dissolution of the present Remnant (SDA) Church Organization, at least in their standing before God, and that prophesy is indeed being fulfilled today in, at least, its Spiritual aspect.

Like God’s True Israel, the true “Chosen People of God” are those who are actually and fully ‘keeping God’s Commandments and the Faith of Jesus’ and thus they will continue to be guided and blessed with the testimony of Jesus, even in the present. Ironically enough, present SDA’s are only looking to the future for the fulfillment of the SOP’s final events prophecies, while, as various documented on my blog, they, like postponed and transposed OT Prophecies, are being at the very least, Spiritually fulfilled in the very present.

My Theological understanding is that what was shown to EGW as literal Final Events prophecies, which actually should been fulfilled during her lifetime by 1903 and at the most extreme, ca. 1996, we “a Plan” that God had to wrap up this GC. However since that planned was foiled by the unbelief and unfaithfulness of God’s people, in at least three specific era’s, then God Plan-A, which was His original plan will indeed be carried out. And that involves, as shown in EW a literal period of Jubilee

This matter is much more than just a (trademarked) name. Indeed because of this trademark, no one can ever apply the name “Seventh-day Adventist” to any other organization, even one that is far more Biblical than the SDA Church, and so, with this similar shallow ‘denominational name [i]per se[/i] argument’ that you have brought out, it can be seen as many in the Church, who are not looking at this issue in its much deeper and determinative Spiritual aspects, will staunchly remain in this organization simply because it will continue to always and exclusively have this name.

Most likely, if that name was not trademarked, many other organizations, (including probably the NJK Project), would have taken up the exact same name. That is indeed what led to the move to trademark it. I am sure OT Israel wished it had that legal recourse to prevent God’s New Spiritual Israel from arising and being established. Good Luck. God is, LOL, surely not limited by any trademarked name to accomplish His work on any organization that will actually and fully be doing his will (LDE 59-62).

...implies that she did indeed speak of the church all the way to the end of time. Those words "It is not to be disorganized or broken up..." are prophetic, and take us all the way to the close of earth's history. That, my friend, is solid. You can take that to the bank.

Those who speak otherwise, in those same words of Mrs. White, "will be deceived and prepared to receive advanced delusions." Furthermore, "they will come to nought."

Let us not think it, then, a light matter whether we stay with the church or not! It is very serious. Satan is playing his game, with human souls as his pawns, for keeps. There are no do-overs. Once the game is ended, it is final.

May we guard well our steps, and "work out [our] own salvation with fear and trembling." (Philippians 2:12)

If anyone is really interested in being fully obedient to [u]Jesus Christ[/u], and follow Him wherever He leads (Rev 14:4b) they will readily and clearly see what organization is truly His.

You all just patently & stubbornly/indifferently prefer to have the one-sided and thus unexegetical approach understanding any issue.

Simple answer to your statements LDE 59.1-60.2 two opposing [b]1903[/b] statements for that (Letter 16) 1893 quote of yours (e.g., 2SM 68.3).

EGW “knowledge”, even Spiritual knowledge, as several examples indicate, which here seems merely “according to her assumption/knowledge” ([url=http://www.maritime-sda-online.com/forums/ubbthreads.php?ubb=showflat&Number=134871#Post134871]1 Cor 7:6, 25[/url]) was also not infallible, inerrant and exhaustive. Just ask. e.g., the prophets Samuel (1 Sam 16:6, 7) and Nathan (2 Sam 7:1-17) who also thought they “knew” “God’s sure will” for His People. God is not even bound by even what He had promised. (Jer 18:1-10ff). That’s just the Biblically incontrovertible fact. So let the Church insist to continue on its wayward course and see if LDE 59.1-60.2 (1903) + 60.3-61.1, (among other such Bible/SOP warnings), will not be fulfilled to the [u]letter[/u].

Succinctly said, as detailed in my forthcoming subject[/url] exegetically speaking, understanding the statement in Num 23:19, which involves the same “change of mind” expression as in Jer 18:8, 10; involves: ‘God who, for reasons dependent upon Himself, thus “fickle reasons”, does not “change his mind” as men easily do’.

As already posted

[url=<http://njproject.blogspot.com/2009/10/book-preview-god-all-mighty.html?showComment=1282802292458#c3203945873578323351>]here[/url] Mal 3:6 speaks of ‘God not putting on an act or disguise to get out of a situation.’ So a just God will not “pretend” to be unjust and indifferent to sin/rebellion, but will, as customary, alter any previously stated promise in order to justly deal with the (sudden) manifestation of that sin/rebellion.’ (Cf. 1 Sam 15:10-35).

Of course, as typical of you all, you just indifferently, outrightly ignore what you have no answer to/for; yet still claim/think that you are right.
